MORROW'S CEREMONY.

AMBASSADOR PATENOTRE BEST MAN.

Much interest is felt in the wedding of Miss Carola Livingston and Count de Laugier-Villar, to be celebrated to-morrow forenoon at 11 o'clock in the Cathedral. Last evening at 5 o'clock the preliminary rehearsal at the Cathedral, absolutely required to make matters go smoothly at a large wedding, was held, At that time the little light there was in the Vast edifice partook of the varied hues of the towering stained glars windows, through which it came, but when the bridal party entered the inside lights were turned on. There were but few people in the Cathedral, some kneeling worshippers telling their beads and few sightseers.

The party included the bride-elect. Miss Carola Livingston; the prospective bridegroom. Count de Laugier-Villar; M. Patenotre, the French Ambassador, who is to be the the best manual contact the chancel awaiting the master of ceremony.
